IJFMA – International Journal of Film and Media Arts

Vol. 11 No 1

Special Issue: Do Comics Have Electric Dreams? Comics and Technology

Publication: May 2026

The International Journal of Film and Media Arts is an open-access access, promoted by the FilmEU - European University and Film and Media Arts Department - Lusófona University (Portugal), and funded by CICANT/ FCT (UID/05260/2025). IJFMA is a semiannual publication that focuses on all areas of film and media arts research and critique, including animation, television, media arts, and videogames, as well as their varied social and cultural forms of expression and materialisation.

In June 2020, IJFMA was accepted for indexation in Scopus from Elsevier, one of the largest abstract and citation databases of peer-reviewed literature in the world. The Content Selection & Advisory Board (CSAB) of Scopus has pointed out that "The journal consistently includes articles that are scientifically sound and relevant to an international academic or professional audience in this field"

The cover design is a light gray rectangle containing several logos and text elements. At the top left, the journal title "International Journal of Film and Media Arts" is displayed in a serif font. Below it, a dark gray rounded rectangle contains the text "PROMOTED BY". Underneath, three logos are arranged horizontally: "film eu" (European University), "UNIVERSIDADE LUSÓFONA" (Lusófona University), and "DEPARTAMENTO DE CINEMA E ARTES DOS MEDIA". Below these, another dark gray rounded rectangle contains the text "FUNDED BY". Underneath, two logos are arranged horizontally: "CICANT" and "fct" (Fundação para a Ciência e a Tecnologia). To the right of the "fct" logo, there is a block of text: "This journal is funded by national funds through the FCT – Fundação para a Ciência e a Tecnologia, I.P., under the project CICANT UID5260/2020." Below this text is the DOI number "DOI10.54499/UIDB/05260/2020".
